YOU WILL AGREE—

That when a man is thoroughly satisfied with a newspaper and thinks it the best advertising medium in the city there must be a substantial reason behind lais convictions. Note what he has to say:

HALL TRANSPORTATION COMPANY,
22 Warren Place, Newark, N. J.
July 22, 1920.

THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD,
Herald Square, New York.

This will be your authority to continue my 12 line "For Hire" advertisement for another week in the AUTOMOBILE EXCHANGE COLUMN of your newspaper.
The results derived from this advertisement are thoroughly satisfactory and I am pleased to tell you that the business obtained exceeds the returns from any other metropolitan daily.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) JAMES LOVETT.

Advertising is an unquestionable asset to your business. And you must keep forever at it. The Automobile Exchange column of The Sun and New York Herald relieves the plugging somewhat, however, for it gets quick and satisfactory results.
